FAQ

How do I obtain an Ohio ID card for my child? You may apply for an Ohio ID card for your child at any Ohio deputy registrar location. Check bmv.ohio.gov for locations.

What documentation will I need to provide for an Ohio ID? You must provide the child's proof of name, date of birth, proof of residency, proof of legal presence (see Acceptable Documents List) and Social Security number, if ever assigned. The Acceptable Documents List can be viewed at publicsafety.ohio.gov/links/bmv2424pdf.

Any child under the age of 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian, who must also provide proof of name, date of birth, proof of residency (must provide two forms of proof of residency if applying for a compliant ID), proof of legal presence, and Social Security number, if ever assigned, or their Ohio driver license or state ID.

How much does an Ohio ID cost? $10.00
Ohio ID is free of charge if child is permanently disabled.

Why should I get my child an Ohio ID card? Ohio photo ID cards for children will assist authorities in the event that a child is reported missing.

Where can my child use their Ohio ID card? Ohio ID cards are used for identification purposes only. This card can't be used for anything else, including driving privileges.

How old does my child have to be before they can obtain an Ohio ID? There is no minimum age for obtaining an Ohio ID card.

Don't forget to include a listing for your child's next of kin in connection with their state ID. It will help authorities get in touch with the child's parent(s) or guardian. Visit bmv.ohio.gov for more information.
